EQUINE LIABILITY RELEASE

WARNING:

Under the Equine Activity Liability Act, adopted by the State of Illinois each participant who engages in an equine activity expressly assumes the risks of engaging in and legal responsibility for injury, loss or damage to person or property resulting from the risk of equine activities.

I, _____ (Print participant's Name) would like to participate in New Kingdom Trailriders' therapeutic riding program.

I acknowledge that anyone engaged in this program as a staff member, rider, volunteer or bystander is assuming certain inherent risks that are an integral part of equine activities, including, but not limited to:

- (1) The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, harm, or death to persons on or around them.
- (2) The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movement, and unfamiliar objects, persons, other animals or other things.
- (3) Certain hazards such as surface and subsurface conditions.
- (4) Collisions with other equines or objects.
- (5) The potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, such as failing to maintain control over the animal or not acting within his or her ability.

Each participant who engages in an equine activity expressly assumes the risk of and legal responsibility for injury, loss or damage to the participant or the participant's property that results from participating in an equine activity.

Having read and understood the above description of the liability of equine activities, I agree to release New Kingdom Trailriders, its staff, volunteers, committees or board members from any liability except where negligence can be proven.
